

Paddy's Prattle

The DCL cup is all finished up and after 3 rounds, 3 players could not be separated at the top. So the trophy is a 3 way tie between Phil Kerr, Charlie Alexander and Jamie Stone. Not sure of the scores but well done boys.

Charlie came 3rd in the RMF cup points which boosted him to top spot in the league with 42 points. But the biggest movers were at the bottom of the table. Gilly grabbed top 15 points and jumped to 16th and Gordy got up to 18th with 2nd place. Hard luck goes to Brendy Davo, Ron Carlson, Chris Ralston, Hamish and Wilson, who finished in the bottom 5 and have now been cut.

The next lot in danger are Dylan, Bill, Greg F, Dave H and Hoppy so they need to have big games in this week's Bermaline cup and Barnett Vase or they are gone, and as Hoppy is up here in Orewa on tour with us I think he may be struggling.

Speaking of tour, as of writing this we have had 4 games at Orewa, Whangaparaoa, Titirangi, and North Shore - all lovely courses but if you get chance to play Titirangi grab it with both hands. Tomorrow we are going to meet ex Brandon pro Andre at Windross Farm and sample the beer there - might play golf as well - but why ruin a good day?

The men to beat on tour are the Flying Dutchman playing off a very inflated handicap and the ever confident Perry, who is unbeaten in match play. Young Pat T and Spud are having a struggle but are getting very adept at buying the drinks.

Good look to everyone in the RMF cup semi-finals see you next week.
Good golfing
