

Ashburton Golf Club

Another glorious spring day welcomed all the golfers last Saturday as we kicked off Club championships for 2025 and lots of players brought their A game. When the dust had settled we had lost 2 top seeds and 2 of last year's champs, now we move into the quarter finals.

In the Seniors Jase Overend played a strong game to take down champ Dave Morrison but it doesn't get any easier as he now lines up with top seed Jeff Hewitt. Dan Lundt took down club legend Charlie and now plays another previous champ Owen Miller. Nick Knight will have his hands full battling Robbie Bell, and rounding out the seniors Peter Walker takes on Richie Mc. Four big games there, with some great golf to look forward to.

In the intermediates young Brad Fallaver wasn't going to stand on ceremony and took down four time champ including the last three years Chris Lovelock, well played Brad, he now takes on Greig Sparrow. Ron Carlson managed to overcome top seed Lefty May and now faces off with Putin. Other quarter finals are Ryan Stoddart against Pete Morrison and Matt Tait against now top seed Gordy Crawford, who had to go extra holes last week.

Junior A lost their top seed as well when Rob Pawsey beat Neil Macdonald, he now battles Ram Clarke. Josh Coyle faces off with the in form Mike Kelly. Mark Smitheram against Shane Beaven will be a ding dong match as will Terry Molloy and Matt Young.

Finally Junior B kicks off this week top seed Matt Harvey plays Rob McMillan, Henry Lawrence faces George Brown. Alan White and Brian Fauth face off as do Craig Davies and Pat Turton. It is going to be a big day of games, good luck to everyone playing, give it your best shot.

On the other side of the course, we also have the Plate games kicking off with some big names among them. Results and semifinal previews next week.

Good golfing

Many thanks,

Paddy Bradford
